BOOKING CONDITIONS

1. The person who signs the booking form does so on behalf of all the individuals included on it, such that all are bound by the booking conditions.
2. In most cases a non-refundable deposit of 10% or US$ 250.00 (whichever is the lesser) is required at the time of booking. Instructions as to how and when to send this deposit will be given at the time of booking. The balance of payment is due 8 weeks prior to arrival. Should this payment fail to arrive by the date specified, we reserve the right to treat the booking as cancelled. If a booking is made 8 weeks or less prior to arrival then the full amount is payable at that time.
3. We make every effort to keep to the itinerary as given to you at the time of confirmation. However, it must be clearly understood that travel in third world countries and remote regions is sometimes effected by factors beyond our control. Route schedules, itineraries, amenities and mode of transport may be subject to alteration without prior notice due to local circumstances or events which may include sickness or medical breakdown, flight cancellations, strikes, events emanating from political disturbances, entry or border difficulties, climate and other unpredictable or unforeseeable events.
4. We reserve the right to change any of the prices, service or other particulars shown in our brochure/website. In addition we also reserve the right to pass on changes in domestic airfares, local taxes etc should these changes occur after your itinerary has been confirmed.
5. Any cancellation by you, must be made in writing. The date on which the letter is received by our agents or us will determine the cancellation charges applicable. The cancellation charges are expressed as a percentage of the total tour price. These charges are as follows:

More than 56 days before arrival	Deposit only
31-55 days before arrival	50%
15-30 days before arrival	75%
Less than 15 days before arrival	100%
6. If you have any special requests, you should inform us of such requests in writing prior to your arrival. We shall inform the various suppliers of your requirements, but we cannot guarantee that such requests will be met nor have any liability of such requests are not met.
7. It is essential that all passengers are covered by insurance before setting out on holiday. This insurance must cover personal accident, medical expenses, loss of effects, repatriation costs and all other expenses that might arise as a result of loss, damage, injury, delay or inconvenience. Please ensure that your insurer is aware of the type of travel to be undertaken.
8. You acknowledge that the nature of travel is adventurous and that as such, tours may involve a significant amount of personal risk. These include, injury, disease, loss or damage to property, inconvenience, and discomfort.
- 9 If you have any complaint whilst on holiday you must immediately inform your tour guide or our company representative who will do his/her best to remedy it. If he or she is unable to do so, we request that you make the complaint as soon as possible after your return and we will do our best to reach settlement with you.
- 10 You must be in possession of a valid passport and all visas, permits and certificates required for the whole of the journey. All information and advice given by us on visas, vaccinations, climate, clothing, baggage etc is given in good faith.
11. By signing our booking form, you are agreeing to accept all the above conditions.
